

NEW WEST VIRGINIA DEVELOPMENT OFFICE INITIATIVE

RAISE your export sales with market research!

RAISE is a program of the U.S. Commercial Service Rural Intel Service that helps you create an export plan, find the best international market for your product or service, locate active players and buyers in your industry, and get your business into the marketplace. How? Through in-depth market research and consultations. All small and medium-sized West Virginia businesses with an interest in proactively exporting and expanding into new markets are encouraged to apply.
