A growing industry with strong roots...

West Virginia’s food and agriculture industry

Prime Location

The Mountain State is within a day’s drive of 50% of the U.S. population and a third of the Canadian market. Our location gives businesses strategic access to major metropolitan centers without the big city costs and inconveniences. Washington, D.C., New York City, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Charlotte, Raleigh, Columbus, Chicago, Lexington and Atlanta are all just a short distance away.

World Class Workforce

West Virginians are known for their grit and hard work. In the Mountain State, you will find an eager, determined workforce with the skills and training needed to get the job done. West Virginia workers boast the lowest manufacturing turnover rate in the nation, and below the national average in all other workforce categories (U.S. Census Bureau, QWI quarterly data, 2019).

Affordability

West Virginia’s cost of doing business is among the lowest in the country, but businesses are not the only ones that flourish thanks to West Virginia’s affordability. With the cost of living 16% lower than the national average, employees will also benefit from low living costs. When you do business in West Virginia, the distribution, energy and human capital savings create a competitive edge compared to companies in surrounding areas.

Positive Business Climate in West Virginia

West Virginia has made it a top priority to address and respond to the needs of today’s companies by ensuring we offer a stable and predictable business climate.

Our state has not added any new business taxes in the last 20 years. According to the Tax Foundation’s 2021 State Business Tax Climate Index, West Virginia is rated 22nd nationally – better than any neighboring state. We also have the sixth best cash surplus in the nation. Aggressive pro-business legislation makes opening and operating a business within the state’s borders a solid investment for companies large and small.
A growing industry with strong roots...

West Virginia’s food and agriculture industry